

I say, I say

- Draw the bodies or faces of six people from the two groups you have learnt about.
- Label them clearly, giving their position and location.
- In the speech bubbles, write a comment that each person might make about their right to 'have a say'.

