

What makes laws fair?

Colour in the statements that you think make for fair laws.

Everyone should have a say in making laws.

Only some people should know what the laws are.

Laws should favour some people more than others.

Only some people should have a say in making laws.

Everyone should know what the laws are.

Laws should treat everyone equally.