

Principles of a fair trial today

You are innocent until you are proven to be guilty.

The judge must be unbiased.

A jury of ordinary people decide if you have been proven to be guilty.

The decision is based on evidence (fact, proof).

You have the right to have your side of the story told.

All participants in court cases must tell the truth.