

FEDERATION REFERENDUM

G

MARK YOUR VOTING THUS:

YES - - - - -

NO - - - - -

G

We cannot all by voice and pen do great things for Australia. Yet every man and woman whose names are on the Roll can exercise a Vote as powerful as the highest in the land.

VOTE FOR FEDERATION

and in days to come we will be proud to tell that we did our part in creating THE FREEST AND FAIREST NATIONAL CONSTITUTION ever submitted for the APPROVAL OF ANY PEOPLE.

Authorised by Alfred Odgers, Gilbert-place, Adelaide.

Adelaide Advertiser, 29 April 1899

A 'how to vote' form, South Australia.

Public Notices.

ELECTORS

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

Federation under the present Bill will deprive you of your liberties and your Employment. Therefore Vote "NO."...

If you do not understand the Bill you should

Vote NO - -

Adelaide Advertiser, 3 June 1898

A 'how to vote' poster, South Australia.

FEDERATED ONE PEOPLE ONE FLAG ONE DESTINY AUSTRALIA

377,000 AUSTRALIANS!! have voted "YES"

WEST AUSTRALIANS
Complete the Union by voting YES!!!

NOTE THIS
Every adult, resident 12 months in W.A. is entitled to Vote if not on 1899 Roll a Voters Certificate must be obtained All Ladies must obtain Certificates on or before 28th July 1900 Personal application is absolutely necessary. See Advertisements in Daily Papers for Registrars Offices Obtain your Certificate and Vote YES!!!

All the Federated Canadian States now Prosperous. Newfoundland stood out now Bankrupt.

Existing Customs collected in Colonies already Federated (average) per head £3:18:4. Collected in Western Australia per head £5:0:5.

Courtesy National Library of Australia

A referendum postcard, Western Australia.

You can VOTE at any POLLING-PLACE

THURSDAY, 27th JULY, 1899

IS A HOLIDAY

WHY?

In order that as many as possible of the Electors may record their VOTES for the great cause of

AUSTRALIAN FEDERATION.

THIS DAY

Will be a famous day in years to come; for on this day Tasmania will become part of

A Great and Free Nation!

DONT LOSE YOUR VOTE

John Voss, Government Printer, Tasmania.

Courtesy National Library of Australia

A referendum poster, Tasmania.

THE WAY TO VOTE TO-DAY.

Are you in favour of the Proposed Federal Constitution Bill?

~~YES~~
NO

W.E. Smith, Bridge St., Sydney

A referendum pamphlet in New South Wales.